

FIRST WORLD WAR PUZZLE FLASH CARDS

How to use these cards:

1. Print out pages 2 and 3 double sided/back to back.
2. Cut along all lines.
3. Place cards, writing side up, on a surface and mix them up.
4. Put the dates in order from first to last. This is called Chronological order.
5. Line up the correct description to the date.
6. Turn them all over, a pair at a time, to see if you are correct (the pictures should match).

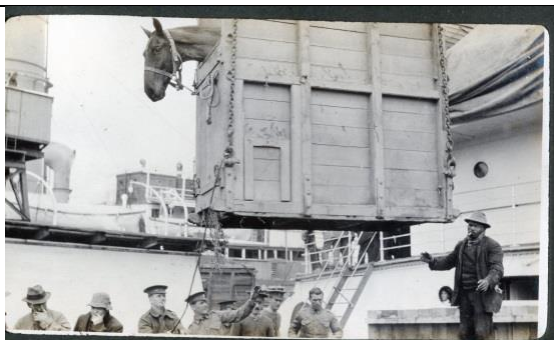

OTHER FLASH CARD ACTIVITIES

Can you make your own cards? Themes you could use:

- Dates of The Second World War
- Dates of the last 100 years of warfare
- Kings and Queens
- Your family members date of birth
- Release dates of music and songs
- Anything where you can match dates to events!

28th June 1914	Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria was assassinated. This led to the start of The First World War.
4th August 1914	Great Britain declares war on Germany when they refuse to withdraw their forces from Belgium.
23rd August 1914	The first major action for the British Expeditionary Force took place on this day when the British were attacked by German forces at Mons.
24th and 25th December 1914	A Christmas Truce happened on these days. Soldiers from both sides sang carols; exchanged simple gifts and some even played a game of football!
2nd March 1916	Shortly before the start of the Battle of the Somme, all single men between 18 and 41 were forced to join the army. This was called conscription.
15th of September 1916	The tank was used in battle for the first time on this date during the Battle of the Somme.
11th November 1918	The day the First World War ended.

These pictures can all be seen in The Tank Museum 'Warhorse to Horse Power' exhibition.
